WADE ELLIS ON THE PLATFORM

Attorney General of Ohio Defends Work of Republican Convention.

LAME REPLY TO MR. BRYAN

INJUNCTION PLANK A "FRANK, CLEAR STATEMENT."

Columbus, Ohio, June 22 .- Attorney General Wade H. Ellis of Ohio, who was a member of the committee on resolutions of the Republican convention and chief author of the platform adopted, in a statement issued tonight replies to criticisms of the platform made by William J. Byan and denies emphatically that the draft of the platform as published before the convention was changed, "with the intention to eral's statement in part follows:

"Of the seven omissions Mr. Bryan refers to, six are in no sense issues before the people at this time, nor has there been any attempt to make them such by the administration, or by any influential element in the party. The seventh concerns injunctions. Upon this plank Mr. Bryan's criticism exhibits his usual recklessness of statement and readiness to assume that his own lack of information might be the prevailing condition.

"Frank, Clear Statement."

"The charge that the Republican declaration with respect to the use of the writ of injunction was designed to 'deceive the laboring man,' is unworthy of a candidate for president, and the further charge that this plank merely de- property. clares the existing law and will give no relief in their cases in which there has been an abuse of direction or the apprehension of it, is unworthy of any lawyer who has examined this question. The anti-injunction resolution is a frank, clear statement of the Republican party's position, on which others have been attempting to deceive labor. "The sole basis of any rational complaint as to the issuance of injunctions in labor cases has been the use of the writ without notice and the long delays in some instances which have intervened before a hearing of the case. The recent statute does not require any notice at all before the granting of a temporary order, and it is entirely within the discretion of the court to postpone to any time the judge may see fit the hearing upon the question of an in-

Provides for Speedy Hearing.

"The Republican plank simply declares that notice shall always be given unless an irreparable injury will result from delay, and in that case there shall be a speedy hearing provided. In other words, the plank declaration is designed to give insurance that which is now the general practice in the federal courts shall be made universal by statute, in order that hereafter no cause of complaint or misapprehension shall remain. This may not satisfy the EVERY KIND OF INSURANCE. extremists on either hand, but it was not expected to do that. It will me the approval of every right-thinking man, whether an employer or an employe. No party can lose by taking a stand for what is right, whoever complains, just as none can profit by taking a stand for what is wrong, whoever applauds.

Confidence in Courts.

"Mr. Bryan objects further to the phrase in the injunction plank which proclaims confidence in the integrity of the courts. It is true, perhaps, that the convention which is yet to meet at Denver, rather than that which has just adjorned at Chicago, should express faith in the integrity of the courts; but in view of the Democratic attack in 1896 and the fact that the same forces which then controlled that party are once again in supreme command, it would seem entirely appropriate for the Republican party not only to remove any possible cause of complaint in the use of the writ of injunction, but to make it clear that it would resent again, as it did in 1896, any attempt to assail the judiciary.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Three of Us," the second offering of the new Orpheum stock company, presented last night for the first time, is a strong play, richer in plot and more likable in every sense than the first play put on by the company. The parts are all well cast and the entire play, except the between seasons. the between scenes parts, goes with smoothness that is most pleasing. few scenes of especial strength give body to the drama which is well worth the best audiences the house holds.

Miss Edith Evelyn is given in this play a part that is better adapted to show her skill as an actress of ability. In her scene with the two men, when appear-ances are all against her in the eyes of her lover, she becomes a very real heroine, and in the quieter hour later when alone with her young brother she leads him from the mistake he has made she is-a very fine actress—so fine in fact that she makes the audience forget her acting and be only in full sympathy with the loving older sister of an erring brother.

The two leading male parts, almost evenly balanced, are taken most capably by Earle Williams and Lee Baker, the latter making a most satisfactory villain.

by Earle Williams and Lee Baker, the latter making a most satisfactory villain of himself without overdoing the part. Mr. Williams is an ideal lover, and even in his hour of doubt holds the full sympathy of the audience. John Gorman, in the juvenile part of Clem Macchesney, comes very high in the cast and plays his part in a way that leaves nothing to activities.
